

Fundraising for Archivists and Librarians

Training and networking day organized jointly by ABTAPL & RAG

Friday 15 November 2024, 10:30am – 5:00pm

St Paul's Cathedral, London

Cost (lunch included):

£15 ABTAPL or RAG members

£20 Non-members

ABTAPL and RAG are pleased to announce this joint training day, which will provide an opportunity for networking, and knowledge sharing, between archivists and librarians working with religious, theological, and philosophical collections. The day will provide insights into available funding streams and the skills required for both successful fundraising and advocacy. Tours of St Paul's Cathedral collections will also be offered.

The ABTAPL Autumn Business Meeting and RAG AGM will be held during the day.

All are welcome no matter where you are in your career.

Speakers and panelists will include:

Jo Boardman – Consultant in the development of sustainable futures

Declan Kelly – Former Director of Libraries and Archives at Lambeth Palace Library

Programme

10:30 am	Coffee and registration
11:00 am - 12:00 pm	First tour (optional) of St Paul's collections
12:00 pm - 12:45 pm	Lunch
12:45 pm - 1:30 pm	Jo Boardman – How to make a successful funding bid
1:30 pm - 2:15 pm	Speaker(s) from The National Archives – Archive sector funding
2:15 pm - 2:45 pm	ABTAPL Autumn Business Meeting & RAG AGM
2:50 pm - 3:50 pm	Panel discussion
3:50 pm-4.50pm	Second tour (optional) of St Paul's collections

